

Please do not allow greater concentration of media control to rest in the hands of a few media conglomerates. Variety, diversity of opinion and independence are the values this country rests on. The possibility of an autocratic media would be a shame and disappoint the founding fathers of this great country.